nunciations, I spoke up in defents of Gan. Hunton and the interregatories. He looked me hard in the face and said, in AN INSULTING, INSOLENT MANNER, that he had not addressed himself to me, and shown him that he was sixty-six years old. and that his age should command respect if his position did not." "Had you said anything, general, disreof Union College, which is sarph, with a sample of the control of ject in appointing Chalmers assistant district attorney in your district?"

"It was to give him advantage over me in the trouble growing out of the election. He began immediately to persecute the men who voted against him. He would have indicted every one of them if he could have done so. It doesn't make any difference upon whose recommendation he was ap-upon whose recommendation he was appointed, or for what apparent purpose; it is well known that it was to give him the leverage the position afforded in his election case. Who ever heard of a man being appointed to a position of the kind and given charge of his own case? It is an instance of infamy without precedent, and the following t infamy without precedent snywhere. And he is yet drawing an excessive salary, with nothing to do but look after his own case."

A gentleman who is acquainted with the facts of the scene states that Brewster acted most brutally, and that Gen. Genéral's presence a minute longer he would no doubt have thrown him out of the window. MINOR MENTION. WASHINGTON, April 3.—Secretary Folger is now undergoing special treatment on account of the condition of one of his eyes. He will be confined to the house for two or three days.

At the Cabinet meeting to day the vacancy in the postmaster-generalship was under dis-cussion. The President will not leave here for Florida until Thursday or Friday, and will probably fill the vacancy to morrow or next day. The War Department has received no offi cial information is regard to the report that Gen. Crook had issued an order to his men to take no prisoners in any engagements which may take place with Indians now on the war path, and the report is discredited.
